MORE INDIANA RECORDS FALL.

Three Indiana records were broken at Lake side yesterday. The footing was springy and fast in spite of the high wind which was blowing. Hi Henry clipped  $1\frac{1}{4}$  seconds off the five furlongs mark, Mamie G  $\frac{3}{4}$  seconds from the mile and 70 yards, and May Galop a quarter of a second from the seven furlongs.

The attendance was large and the racing of good quality, some of the finishes being close. It was a bad day for favorites, as Hi Henry, in the Owner's Handicap, was the only one to reward the backers. The three last performances of the son of Big Henry—Cut But were not of a character to warrant his being made favorite, or to lead one to expect that he would run such a fast race. His recent work made it appear as if he had gone back, but there are sometimes surprising revivals. That good light weight T. Burns distinguished himself by riding three winners and one second. His finish on May Galop in the seven furlong race, was an exceptionally good piece of work.

Mr Dunlap and Ben Hur were most fancied in the opening dash. The last named off fifth, went to the front at once, and staying there to the end won handily, while Fakir who got away badly, was an easy second.

Five pretty fair two-year-olds went to the post in the second event, with Bombardon a slight favorite over Siegfried. Vanessa off in front, led all the way and won by a length and a half. The other four had a desperate battle for the place, finishing short heads apart.

Rubber Neck made the running in the Owners' Handicap, until they were well straightened out. Then Hi Henry went to the front and won galloping by three lengths. Remedy got a bad start, but was outpaced.

Lillian E. and Merry Monarch were equally fancied for the mile and seventy yards, with the others at long prices. Lillian E was the pace-maker to the stretch, where Mamie G, who had been cleverly handled by little Hothersall, took the lead. Lillian E tired, and Murphy brought up Merry Monarch. He could not quite reach Mamie G, who won by a neck, with Lillian E. three lengths back.

That acrobat, Dick Behan was the natural favorite for the seven furlongs, but he ran a disappointing race. Anna Mayes, May Galop and Ardath were the contending horses nearly all the way. Anna Mayes led Ardath by a head in the stretch with May Galop third. Anna Mayes tired and Ardath came on looking like a winner at the sixteenth pole. Burns brought up May Galop with a rush, and catching Ardath ten yards from the wire, forced Hothersall to the whip, and just beat him out a nose.

There were strong tips out on Feedman and Starbeam in the last race, and though the first named was at one time 40 to 1 he went to the post at 10 to 1. He ran a wretched race. The Rook made the running till fifty yards from home, when Fred K collared her and won by a short head.

A lot of good two-year-olds have entered for the Juvenile Handicap, to be run on June 3. The distance is five furlongs and the value $800. The weights will be announced Saturday, May 30.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Dorian seems to have lost all form and to have degenerated to sellingplaterdom.

Mr. A. Clason, racing in the East, is a turfman of class and nephew of the late D. D. Withers.

On public form the official ability of western racing centers about Capt. Jim Rees, Joe Murphy, Martin Nathanson and John Carter. All these men are competent, honest, studious and actionable when needs be.

Mr. Marcus Daly's Silver II, a well tried colt, who ran third in last year's Futurity, has gone wrong.

The Walbaum combination, after declaring to abandon racing at Saratoga, has applied to the Jockey Club for dates.

In their trials, Casspeia was tried ten pounds better than Successful, the Walden filly that won so well in the early eastern season.

There is a public play on St. Maxim, 108, for the Brooklyn Handicap, with reason. He isn't in the Suburban, but has shown good early form.

One of the average cases of dispute over a flash bet involving some $2,000 about Premier's win at Morris Park Tuesday, is in dispute at Lakeside.

Ed Corrigan, looking like a leader of the winning owners' list, was in Chicago a few hours of Wednesday and has gone to Oakley to meet his California stable.

The edition de luxe of charts to be issued next week by Daily Racing Form Publishing Co.

THE PHENOMENAL ORNAMENT.

By far the best of the western crop of two-year-olds is Ornament, the big chestnut son of Order and Victorine, the daughter of Onondaga's whose 1892 produce, Whyota was also a speed marvel. Order is eight years old, by Bend Or out of Angelica by Galopin. Bred by the Duke of Westminster, Order was imported by Mr. Headley of the Beannont Stud four years ago. Ornament is of a second crop of Order's. The colt is engaged in the Futurity, estimated at this time at \$60,000 in value and which is run at Sheepshead Bay, August 15. Mr. M. F. Dwyer is trying to buy Ornament, but the price named by C. T. Patterson is too high for the Eastern turfman. Ornament has performed four times this season. His last was yesterday on Oakley's slow track, with 121 pounds up, which he won in a gallop from Roy Carruthers, a fair colt himself, the five furlongs in 1:05 $\frac{1}{4}$ .

May 2, at Lexington, with 118 pounds up, he won the Breeders Futurity five furlongs in 1:02 $\frac{1}{4}$ , easily beating a fair lot.

April 28 at Lexington, with 110 pounds up, he correct—printed—index. The book will be of 300 or more pages, and its charts—some 1300 in number—will cover the racing at Little Rock, Memphis, Nashville, Newport, Birmingham, Forsyth, Sheffield, Lakeside, Windsor, Lexington, St. Louis, Louisville, Oakley, Washington, Aqueduct and Morris Park.

The book will be a revelation in its line and its price—$6—reasonable. Already nearly one-third of the limited edition has been reserved. Prepaid orders will be taken for it, listed and filled according to subscription list. When the edition is exhausted subscribers will be notified and their money refunded. The book will be ready for delivery about June 3.

A SPECIAL FORM SERVICE.

From and after June 1, Daily Racing Form Publishing Company will be ready to fill orders for a local form service of marvelous range. Its messengers will deliver to subscribers each evening a leather-bound volume of the charts of all races run the same afternoon, with indexed entries for the following day on each track—local and foreign. The charge for such service will be reasonable and quoted upon application.

Gore's Good Hotel.

Gore's Fireproof Hotel is a modern establishment with every modern convenience. It is conducted on the European plan, and has a first class restaurant connected with it. Rooms can be had for $1.00 per day, with special rates by the week. Horsemen will find "Gore's" a very desirable place to live.

What Racing People Need.

The Flanders card, published nightly is correct, and goes to the public convenience of printing a set of entries which is wired for the benefit of its patrons.

Clohesey & Co., of 48 and 50 Wabash avenue, can supply bookmakers with all their needs, and is a reliable and high class firm.

LAKESIDE FORM.

The form of Friday's fields at Lakeside is: First Race—Cunarder, Major Dripps, Queen Faustus. Second Race—Tom Anderson, C. H. Whelan, Miss Chambers. Third Race—Irene Woods, Outgo, Revenue. Fourth Race—Laura F. Doctor G, Nannie D. Fifth Race—Eloroy, John Hickey, Dick Tension. Sixth Race—May Fern, The Rook, Lollie Eastin.

OAKLEY FORM.

CINCINNATI, O., May 27.—The form of Friday's Oakley fields is as follows: First Race—Rosinante, Scarf Pin, Ollean. Second Race—Image, Reprieve, Lucy Lee. Third Race—F. F. V, Viscount, J. Walter. Fourth Race—The Commoner, Lily of the West, Maggie S. Fifth Race—Semper Lex, Probasco, Leaflet.

Oakley Pooling.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 28.—To-night's pooling on Friday's Oakley races was: First Race—Rosinante, $10; Scarf Pin, $8; Ollean, $8; Lady Rover, $7; Adowa, $5; field, $3. Third Race—Viscount, $5; Jolly Son, $4; F F V., $3; J. Walter, $3; field, $5. Fourth Race—The Commoner, $25; Lilly of the West, $8; Mattie Lee, $8; field, $5. Fifth Race—Semper Lex, $15; Probasco, $8; Leaflet, $2; field, $3.

THE PHENOMENAL ORNAMENT, BY ORDER—VICTORINE.

is "selling like hot cakes." There is but one-sixth of the edition unreserved. The orders for the book average twenty per day.

Anandale, Ananias or Allantoid, a racing dabbler, declares that "Thorpe was worth five pounds on Yo Tambien's back." He is requested to consult the racing guides and to make notes of what he finds, if he finds intelligently. Then again, the same skimmer of racing opines that Yo Tambien "was the best mare that ever raced in America." Go, thou superficialist, to the records of—say Miss Woodford, Firenzi and Los Angeles. Make notes, too, of what you find in them.

THE EVANATUS CASE DECIDED.

The Lakeside judges have decided the Evanatus-Levy case growing out of newspaper talk over the race of May 9th, in which Levy was quoted as declaring that Irving pulled Evanatus. The decision is that Levy be "denied the privileges of the track for the season of 1896 and for such further time until he retracts his charges."

won the Melbourne Stakes, 5 furlongs in 1:03 $\frac{1}{2}$  from Treopia, Dunois and four others.

April 24 at Memphis Ornament's debut was made in a maiden two-year-old race, and he won the one-half mile in 50 $\frac{1}{4}$  from a bad lot. He got off a bad last and ran around his field. Nothing has been able so far to live with the handsome Order colt. He is not the best of actors but has improved as he has performed and on racing in public is far and away the best that has appeared so far.

THE GREATEST OF FORM BOOKS.

Because of inability to fill orders for the first leather bound form book—the small edition of which was sold three days after it was offered—Daily Racing Form Publishing Company have in preparation a work of art in the form line. It will be a beautifully bound volume in black flexible leather, containing all the charts from March 25 to May 31 inclusive, with a full and
